Citations:

Having regard to the Postal and Electronic Communications Code;

Having regard to Law No 2024-449 of 21 May 2024 to secure and regulate the digital space, in particular Articles 28 and 29 thereof;

Having regard to the opinion of the Regulatory Authority for Electronic Communications, Postal Services and Press Distribution dated XX/YY/ZZZZ

Article 1

Pursuant to Article 29(I) of the Law of 21 May 2024 referred to above, the Regulatory Authority for Electronic Communications, Postal Services and Press Distribution shall specify the rules and procedures for implementing the essential requirements referred to in Article 28(II) of the Law after consulting the public, in particular by laying down interoperability and portability specifications aimed at facilitating, where possible, the interoperability of cloud computing services covering the same type of service and improving the portability of assets between different cloud computing services.

For the implementation of Article 29(V) of the abovementioned Law, the rules and procedures referred to in the first subparagraph shall be specified before 12 September 2025.

Article 2

Pursuant to Article 29(II) of the abovementioned Law, the technical reference offer for interoperability shall include, in particular, the following information:

1. The procedures available for changing providers and porting to the cloud computing service, including the methods and formats of changing provider and porting available, as well as the restrictions and technical limitations known to the cloud computing service provider in this regard;
2. The arrangements for making available the information referred to in Article 28(II)(3) of the aforementioned Law.

Article 3

The Minister Delegate to the Minister for the Economy, Finance and Industry, responsible for Industry, and the Secretary of State to the Minister for Higher Education and Research, responsible for Artificial Intelligence and Digital Affairs, are each responsible, insofar as they are concerned, for the implementation of this Decree, which will be published in the Official Journal of the French Republic.
