7.

Regulation (EU) No 1169/2011 on the provision of food information to consumers: Articles 40, 43, 44 and 45 notified in accordance with Article 45 of Regulation (EU) 1169/2011

8. The draft regulation introduces a new category of potatoes – early small potatoes (small young potatoes) and small table potatoes. The draft regulation lays down detailed requirements for the commercial quality of these potatoes.

9. The need to introduce the 'small' category is due to the dynamically changing food market and the evolution of consumer preferences requiring a flexible approach to the regulation of quality standards. The proposed solution will allow for a more diversified product range, giving consumers the opportunity to make informed choices and supporting efforts to reduce food waste. Many small-diameter potatoes are not available for sale due to current regulations, which translates into additional losses of valuable products. The introduction of the provisions of the proposed regulation would reduce losses in the supply chain.
