8. The regulation undertakes the mandate established for the autonomous communities in Royal Decree 191/2011 of 18 February on the General Health Register of Food Businesses and Foods, with a double purpose: on the one hand, to regulate the procedure of communication for the registration, modification and cancellation in the Register of companies and establishments of retail trade of food products located in the Community of Madrid and, on the other hand, to regulate the regional register in which they will be registered in order to facilitate their control in order to guarantee the right to health protection; and furthermore to eliminate and reduce obstacles and administrative costs to retailers of food products in the Community of Madrid, creating a more favourable and transparent environment for the person who owns the food business, clarifying and unifying the procedures to be carried out.

The Decree consists of a preamble and the following chapters:

- Chapter I (Articles 1, 2, 3 and 4): General provisions.
- Chapter II (Articles 5, 6 and 7): Of the Register of Food Companies for Retail Sale of Food Products of the Community of Madrid.
- Chapter III (Articles 8, 9, 10 and 11): Of the procedures for communicating the start of the activity, communication of modification of data of mandatory information contained in the communication or definitive cessation of the activity.
- Chapter IV (Article 12): Penalty authority.

Sole transitional arrangement.

Sole repealing provision.

Two final provisions.

An Annex

9. The purpose of the approval of this Decree is to develop the provisions laid down in Royal Decree 191/2011 of 18 February 2007 on the General Health Register of Food Businesses and Foodstuffs, in order to meet the following objectives:

- To create the General Register of Food Companies for Retail Sale of Food Products of the Community of Madrid as a food safety instrument, which contributes to protecting public health and the interests of consumers.

- To regulate the procedure for communicating the start of activity of such food businesses for the purposes of their registration in the Register.

- To eliminate and reduce administrative obstacles and costs for retailers of food products in the Community of Madrid, not being the presentation of the enabling communication for the start of the activity, in addition to being a free procedure that will not generate unnecessary costs for companies.
