5. Draft Royal Decree regulating the legal framework regarding the obligation to promote European audiovisual works and linguistic diversity

6. Promotion of European audiovisual works and linguistic diversity

7.

8. This draft royal decree aims to approve the implementing regulation for Chapter III of the General Law on Audiovisual Communication (hereinafter LGCA), relating to the promotion of European audiovisual works and linguistic diversity included in its Title VI, which deals with the obligations to be met by audiovisual communication service providers in this area.

Specifically, the draft royal decree will develop the quota and advance financing obligations for European audiovisual works to which television audiovisual communication service providers are subject.

9. The changes introduced in the Audiovisual Media Services Directive were integrated into Spanish law through Law 13/2022, of 7 July 2022, LGCA. Among the modifications made to the regulatory framework governing audiovisual communication service providers is the reform of the obligation to promote European audiovisual works and linguistic diversity consisting of obligations relating to the quota of European audiovisual works and the advance financing of European audiovisual works.

Consequently, this draft royal decree aims to comply with the provisions of European regulations on audiovisual communication services.
