5. Order amending the Order of 4 June 2018 on the characteristics of light marine diesel

6. Light marine diesel (fuel for the navy)

7.

8. The Order defines the characteristics of the fuel known as 'light marine diesel'.

9. Standard NF ISO 8217 'Products of petroleum, synthetic or renewable origin – Fuels (Class F) – Fuel specifications for the navy' was updated by the International Maritime Organisation in 2024 and now allows the incorporation of fatty acid methyl esters. The Order incorporates the requirements of this standard and amends the Order of 4 June 2018 on the characteristics of light marine diesel.
