8. The purpose of this regulation is to develop the basic conditions of cognitive accessibility, its requirements and application, in order to contribute to the exercise of the rights and duties of citizens, as well as to guarantee equal opportunities and non-discrimination for all people, and especially for people with cognitive difficulties, in the areas indicated in section 6.

9. To complete the development of the Consolidated Text of the General Law on the rights of persons with disabilities and their social inclusion, as amended by Law 6/2022, of 31 March 2022, amending the Consolidated Text of the General Law on the rights of persons with disabilities and their social inclusion. Their social inclusion, approved by Royal Legislative Decree 1/2013, of 29 November 2013, to establish and regulate cognitive accessibility and its conditions of enforcement and application. Its second additional provision establishes a period of three years from the entry into force of the law for the Government to approve the specific Regulation developing the basic conditions of cognitive accessibility.
