

Qualitative impact assessment: The draft decree will simplify and facilitate the procedure for access to e-commerce for local pharmacies, making them more competitive at European level. The draft decree aims to offer new services to patients, while ensuring the protection of public health.