6. Amusement park rides

7.

8. The main content is that amusement park rides provided to the public must, as a general rule, meet the requirements of the European standard SS-EN 13814:2019 'Safety of amusement rides and amusement devices' or meet equivalent safety requirements. In some cases and in some parts it is permitted to apply an older standard instead.

The proposed regulations are an update of the regulations currently in force, which refer to older standards.

9. The aim is to ensure that amusement park rides made available to the public provide adequate protection against accidents, that is to say, to protect human life and health. The provisions have been designed so that they are proportionate to this purpose.
